EXTRACURRICULAR GROUP ACTIVITY

Tentative reservations have been made for the NAESB group at the world-famous Flying W Ranch for dinner the night of Wednesday, August 25, 2004. The evening starts with a visit to the old western town of over a dozen completely restored buildings furnished with authentic contents of the 1800's and early 1900's.

FOR SUPPER , A TRULY WESTERN MENU

Your choice of:

- Tender Slices of Beef or BBQ Chicken
- Foil Wrapped Potatoes
- Flying W Beans
- Chunky Applesauce
- Old Fashioned Spice Cake
- Served with Biscuits, Coffee, Lemonade or Iced Tea

After dinner you will be entertained by the Flying W Wranglers. The Wranglers specialize in beautiful 3 part vocal harmonies about the romantic American Cowboy. Their voices are outstanding and their western humor is very entertaining. The Wranglers also rank among some of the finest musicians in the country, all playing several different instruments. The show is always family-oriented.

The complete package price is $17.50. This includes admission to the western town, supper, our famous western stage show, tax and tip. The western town opens at 4:30 PM, seats for supper at 7:15, and the show begins around 8:30. Everything is over by 9:30.

To hear clips of the Flying W Wranglers visit the Flying W online at www.flyingw.com.

If you are interested in attending this activity, please contact Mary Gravit at El Paso Corporation by email at mary.gravit@elpaso.com or by phone at 719-520-4732 no later than August 6, 2004.

Group transportation may be arranged if there is enough interest. Please indicate your interest when you contact Mary to schedule your reservation for the dinner trip.

EXTRACURRICULAR GROUP ACTIVITY

The Cheyenne Mountain Resort has offered the NAESB participants a “Twilight Golf Special” for Thursday afternoon, August 26, starting at a 4:00 p.m. tee time. The price will be $70.00 per person for 18 holes at the world-class Cheyenne Mountain Golf course.

If you are interested in participating in this activity, please contact Mary Gravit at El Paso Corporation by email at mary.gravil@elpaso.com or by phone at 719-520-4732 no later than July 24, 2004. Anyone wanting to participate in this golf outing will need to be pre-registered. Anyone who has not registered with Mary Gravit prior to July 24 will not be eligible for this price or tee time. All fees for the golf outing will be charged to the participants’ room bill.

Information regarding the golf course and dress code are below:

GOLF COURSE

(Country Club of Colorado at Cheyenne Mountain Resort)

Country Club of Colorado golf course is a private, 18-hole championship course offering majestic views of the Pikes Peak mountain range and a 35 acre lake that comes into play on 5 holes along the back nine. This beautiful, traditional style course with a mountain flavor was designed by the renowned architect, Pete Dye, and plays a comfortable 5,357 yards from the red tees, 6,469 yards from the white tees to a challenging 7,059 yards from the blue tees. Golfers of every ability will find this early Pete Dye course challenging and exciting. The course is spike free and open to guests of Cheyenne Mountain Resort and Country Club of Colorado members only. Due to our private membership, a dress code is strictly enforced - please dress appropriately.

Men are requested to wear traditional golf shirts with collars and sleeves, along with appropriate tailored slacks or traditional golf shorts. Spikeless golf shoes or smooth soled athletic shoes are required.

Women are requested to wear shirts with or without sleeves and with or without collars, along with tailored slacks, shorts, culottes or a golf skirt. Spikeless golf shoes or smooth soled athletic shoes are required.

The following apparel is considered unacceptable: t-shirts, jeans, sweat suits, shorts with less than a 17" out-seam, tennis shorts, tennis skirts, running shorts, gym shorts, tank tops, halter tops or bathing suits.
