

Gas Industry Standards Board EBB Internet Implementation Task Force
Recommended Standards from Industry Comment
Which Were Changed Subsequent to Distribution for Comment

#	Minutes Meeting Date	Group	IN GROUP ORDER
			Language
4.3.A.ii.a	20-Aug-98	d4	"GISB FF/EDM" is the term used to describe a standardized flat file computer-to-computer electronic data interchange of information in files as mapped from the x.4.z GISB standards. GISB FF/EDM is communicated between trading partners over the Internet using the GISB Electronic Delivery Mechanism.
4.3.A/L	17-Sep-98	s21	A Transportation Service Provider (TSP) which determines to provide new features utilizing existing transaction sets via GISB EBB/EDM, for each transaction upon inception of support for such service, should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If GISB EDI/EDM or FF/EDM standards exist for the transaction set, provide the service via EDI/EDM, or FF/EDM or both, utilizing modifications defined by the Transportation Service Provider to the existing file structures; and, • Ssubmit a request for modification or enhancement of the transaction set to GISB including details of the interim EBB/EDM, EDI/EDM and/or FF/EDM implementation.
50A	3-Sep-98 10-16-98	s24	On the Nominations Web page, data should be organized in the Form in logical groupings. The logical groupings of data are specified in the Nominations Ddata Dd ictionary.
8A	17-Sep-98	s34	Access to the Customer Activities Web Site should be protected by HTTP Basic Authentication or similar logon/password mechanism(s) using 40-bit encryption . A Customer Activities Web site should typically require a single logon/password pair for each user session.
68	1-Oct-98	s43	Columns and data fields that would contain data not supported by the Transportation Service Provider should be eliminated on display and/or entry, and left empty on download. [REPLACEMENT TO GISB STANDARD NO. 4.3.34]
73	16-Oct-98	s48	A Transportation Service Provider which determines to provide new services which do not utilize existing transaction sets via GISB EBB/EDM, should, prior to implementation submit a request for standardization to GISB including descriptions of the EBB/EDM, EDI/EDM and, as applicable, FF/EDM implementation.
74	16-Oct-98	s49	On Customer Activities Web site pages, information which is not part of at the data dictionaryies may be displayed.