

Submitted by Enron

Proposed Standard:

Data fields used to populate or control population of other fields can be placed before the fields to be populated. If these data elements apply to the entire content area they can appear in the heading.