

For those who cannot attend the Joint Industry Group Wholesale Standardization Workshop being held in New York on Friday, February 1, EEI has arranged to have the meeting set up via conference call also.

You can access materials being provided at the meeting and conference call details by going to EEI's website at:

http://www.eei.org/edg/trans/fed_reg/rm0112/index.htm and then select the Joint Industry Group Wholesale Standardization Workshop being held on February 1.
