Terms of Agreement:

The NAESB list serv is a tool provided to participants in NAESB sanctioned activities. NAESB reserves the right to unregister any participant who uses the list serv for other than the business of the NAESB WEQ Time and Inadvertent Management Task Force. List serv users must read the following list serv policy and agree to all of its terms and conditions before registering or using the service. This policy is subject to change. List serv users are encouraged to review the current policy regularly.

The NAESB list serv is intended for the sole purpose of encouraging discussion and the easy sharing of data, views, opinions and positions of participants in its standard setting activities - and specifically for the standards development activities assigned to the NAESB WEQ Time and Inadvertent Management Task Force. It is not intended for social or personal use. All messages posted will be automatically forwarded to all registered users. No messages will be archived or retained for any period. Comments intended for posting on the NAESB web site must continue to be sent to the NAESB office at naesb@naesb.org with specific directions requesting that they be posted.

Antitrust guidelines are in effect for the NAESB list serv. The guidelines direct participants to avoid discussion of topics or behavior that would result in anticompetitive behavior including: restraint of trade and conspiracies to monopolize, unfair or deceptive business acts or practices, price discriminations, division of markets, allocation of production, imposition of boycotts, and exclusive dealing arrangements. Since it is not the purpose of the NAESB list serv to communicate any antitrust topics, if any participant is suspected of straying into improper areas, please contact the NAESB Office (naesb@naesb.org or 713-356-0060) immediately.

NAESB is not responsible for any inappropriate or illegal content. The views, opinions and positions are those of the individual participants, and their organizations, and not the views, opinions or positions of NAESB, its Board of Directors, or any NAESB Committee or Subcommittee. Again, the list serv should be used only for the business of the NAESB WEQ Time and Inadvertent Management Task Force.

Usage Principles:

1. Email exploder is intended for general discussions only.
2. Email exploder may be used for any unofficial business associated with standard development, such as research, sharing of information, transfer of knowledge, "brainstorming", idea development, and preliminary document drafting.
3. Email exploder may not be used for formal solicitation or submission of public comment, publication of documents, or official standard deliberations.
4. No decisions made as a result of deliberations on an email exploder will be considered official until officially discussed and deliberated at an appropriately noticed committee or subcommittee meeting.
5. Discussions on the email exploder are considered unofficial and will neither be posted on the NAESB website nor considered a part of the official record of the standard development.
 - a. Any discussions intended to be a part of official standard deliberations should be sent directly to the NAESB office

- b. Official discussions may also be sent simultaneously to the exploder, but the NAESB office should be the primary addressee and the email should contain specific instructions to the office regarding the intent of the email to be included as part of the official record.
6. No documents distributed via the exploder will be posted to the NAESB website;
 - a. Requests for document posting on the NAESB website must be sent directly to the NAESB
 - b. Official requests for document posting may also be sent simultaneously to the exploder, but the NAESB office should be the primary addressee and the request must contain specific instructions to the office regarding how the document should be posted (e.g. – standards development page, meeting page, or project documents page).
7. Emails sent to the email exploder will not be retained by the NAESB office.
